Just published by Messrs. G. Routledge and Sons, Ludgate Hill, London, price £1 11s 6d, the enlarged edition of this work by Michael G. Mulhall F. S. S.; it forms a volume of 640 double-column pages, super royal octave, bound in cloth, with 10 full page plates printed in colors It is uniform in type and appearance with Chambers' Encyclopædia, and is the largest and most comprehensive work on statistics yet published in any language, embracing 3,330 subjects and all countries.

There is a complete catalogue, of 4,000 items, which enables the student to refer at once to the required item; also a list of 400 books of reference by the most eminent writers on economy and statistics. The publishers have spared no expense in issuing the work, which has involved enormous outlay, being one of the most costly books published for some years in London.

CUSTOMS-TARIFF FOR 1893.

In a few days the tariff for next year will be discussed in Congress, and the proposed amendments by the Committee in the House of Deputies shew that we need expect no relaxation of the tremendous import duties that at present weigh us down. On the contrary some items are to be increased; the duty on common wine for example is to be 40 cents (gold) per gallon, which is equal to an ad valorem duty of 80 per cent, the ordinary value of such wine in Europe being 50 cents per gallon. The duty is at present 35 cents per gallon (8 per litre), and there is neither rhyme nor reason in the proposed increase. Wine is in this country a prime necessity of life, and as the home production is not equal to one-third of the quantity required for consumption an infamous branch of manufacture has sprung up, making Argentine wines out of alcohol, potatoes, algarroba, log-wood, old boots and other ingredients, to the damage of public health.

The sugar-duty is unaltered, $70 per ton unrefined, $90 refined: this tax of £18 sterling per ton is much more than the value of sugar in the world's markets. It is fully 120 per cent ad valorem. The result of this frightful and overwhelming impost is that we are now paying to the grocers of Buenos Ayres 70 cents per kilo, that is £45 sterling a ton, or three times the current value of the article. If the difference went into the National Treasury we should not grumble, as it would lighten the other taxes. But the fact is that the sugar-men get £20 a ton from us over the fair value, and as the crop is estimated at 60,000 tons it follows that we are paying an internal tax of £1,200,000 a year, say $20,000,000 currency, to a group of cunning patriots in the upper provinces, who boast (all too loudly) of their brilliant efforts in promoting native products.

It would puzzle the most infatuated Protectionist in Buenos Ayres to shew what possible good can result to the country from these nefarious taxes on wine and sugar. Even Dr. Plaza, amid the blandishments of fashionable life at Cheltenham, feels that the policy which be set on foot in 1876 has proved a most tremendous curse. We can survive the sacking of State Banks, the gigantic frauds, clandestine emissions and countless enormities of late years.

But we cannot survive the Argentine wines, for they kill the consumer. And if any of our population do escape the deadly compounds the remainder of their days is overshadowed by taxation and misery, while the sugar-men give way to joyful acclamations of "Viva la Proteccion, Viva Dr. Plaza, Vivan los 20,000,000$."

CURRENCY FLUCTUATIONS.

It may have escaped the notice of most of our readers that the gold premium in the month of Sept. 1892 was steadier than it had been for more than 3 years, namely since May 1889. The price of 100 gold dollars last month shewed as follows:—

Highest quotation......	330
Lowest „	321
Month's average........	327

The extremes shewed a difference of no more than 9 points, which is less than 3 per cent, whereas we have frequently seen fluctuations of 10 per cent and more in a month.

In the absence of a fixed currency what is most desirable is the minimum of fluctuations, and hence the month of Sept. 1892 was eminently favorable to the commercial and general interests of the country.

We do not wish to see a sudden improvement of the currency, such as Mr. Lidderdale and Lord Rothschild predicted, namely a fall of the gold premium to 50 per cent in less than 12 months. This would ruin numbers of people, and cause a tremendous shock to trade and business of every description

The tendency of course will be (unless more paper-issues be resorted to) a gradual decline of gold premium, and if this were to proceed at the rate of one per cent a month the effect on the general interests of the nation would be marvellous. For this purpose, however, it would be necessary to burn at least one million dollars monthly, which is clearly impossible. The most that could be done would be to burn $100,000 every Monday morning at the Government House, and then the gold premium would descend slowly and steadily.

The present opportunity is so favorable for a complete banking reform that we cannot but regret most sincerely the indisposition of Minister Romero to make a decided effort to convert the new National Bank into a joint-stock concern, wholly free from Government control. The working-classes will not come forward with their deposits so long as they see that their hard-earned savings may be sent up to Entre Rios or other of the provinces in the form of a loan.

Never did any finance-minister come into office in Buenos Ayres with higher expectations on the part of the public than Dr. Romero. It remains with himself to shew whether he be worthy of the great confidence that his own countrymen and the commercial body repose in him.

MUNICIPAL REPORT.

September compares with the preceding month as follows:—

	August	September
Births....	2,023	1,973
Deaths....	1,253	1,192
Increase..	730	781

The city population is assumed to be 547,300 souls. The annual birth-rate and death-rate, therefore, compare as follows:—

	Per 1,000 pop. August	September
Births..	44	43
Deaths..	28	26
Increase	16	17

The death-rate in September was exceptionally low, having been 37 per 1,000 last June. The parentage of children born shewed thus:—

Parents	August	September
Argentine....	235	209
Foreign......	1,248	1,211
Mixed........	540	553
Total....	2,023	1,973

It is startling to find that births of Argentine parents have fallen to 10 per cent of the total. Unless a Peter the Hermit come to preach regeneration to Argentines the race is doomed.

Marriage-returns shew as follows:—

Persons married	August	September
Argentines ..	262	243
Italians......	258	308
Spaniards	162	149
French.........	72	65
British	14	18
Germans.....	17	12

Total	852	834

Passing to economical statistics we find

By	Properties bought $ currency. August	September
Argentines...	2,990,000	2,490,000

Various......	1,200,000	3,180,000
Total....	7,150,000	8,330,000

The sales of house-property in Sept. in 5 principal parishes shew the average value in gold dollars per square metre, compared with August, thus:

Parish.	Gold dollars per sq. metre. August.	Sept.
Merced	44	30
San Miguel.....	23	52
San Nicolas	14	23
Piedad	28	21
Socorro	32	22
Average	28	30

There was a steady influx of immigrants last month, viz.:

Arrivals	12,946
Departures	4,153
Net gain	8,793

The number of houses supplied with pipe-water is now 26,380, leaving about 10,000 still unsupplied. The daily consumption of water was 10,800,000 gallons, or nearly 20 gallons per inhabitant.

PARAGUAY.

We have dates from Asuncion to 21st inst. and are glad to say that the Government has taken decided measures in reference to the murder of some French and Austrian subjects at the Caazapa or President Gonzalez colony. The supposed assassin has been arrested, and is found to be a native of the Argentine Republic, who was working as a laborer with one of the French colonists. An officer has been also despatched with an escort of picked men to scour the district around Caazapa and take up "matreros." Meantime the crops of the colonists promise well, including those of the Irish settlers, and if these poor people be properly protected from prowling vagabonds and criminals the colony may ultimately turn out as well as that of the Germans at San Bernardino.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Swampy Santiago still rules the roast. The latest news, if true, points to serious complications. It is said that Mariano Maza, who was at one time Chief of Police or Commissary, we forget which, in Santa Fe, has left for Santiago with 120 men, most of them experienced hands. Maza goes to support Rojas. At the same time it is said that Col. Daza, ex-Governor of Catamarca, has also left for Santiago with men and ammunition with the same end. Rojas appears to have a good many friends in Santa Fe, Catamarca, Cordoba and other provinces. When a provincial Governor falls, he finds he has many friends. Cordoba, we believe, has also sent a few friends to uphold the cause or idea which the overthrown Governor represents.

Telegrams received yesterday confirm the defeat of Sarvelio Ruiz, although it appears that the fight was not of the proportions or importance which the first telegrams led the public to believe. There were a few shots exchanged and Sarvelio's men took to flight with a view of fighting some other day. Sarvelio was not wounded, but on seeing his men running away, he became so disgusted that he got sick. He is now in bed swallowing physic and disappointment. In regard to the overthrown Governor he is in the enjoyment of the best health. The same cannot be said of the ex-Speaker Mr. Sosa, who is only so-so. He has a bad cough, accompanied by fever, superinduced by anxiety for his family, his wife being in a very delicate condition. There appears to be no fear now of the populace murdering either the Governor or any of his more prominent partisans. Governor Rojas expresses great surprise and discontent at the accounts of the revolution published in the Buenos Ayres papers. He distinctly states that he sent no letters or telegrams from Sierra's house. The messages he sent were despatched in the first moments of the revolution from his own private residence. We may here state that one of the conditions of the Governor's removal to a place of safety was that he should consider himself completely "incomunicado." This condition he not only accepted but strictly fulfilled, until he was liberated, when he was allowed to speak with friends and relatives. His overthrown Excellency remained with the revolutionary Junta in order to avoid the possibility of his being murdered in the street by some of his over-excited fellow-citizens.

The good and even the bad Rosarinos are in a great state of excitement, and so are the authorities. It is all about the big meeting which is to come off next Sunday, to protest against the government of the province and all its works and pomps. There is a very general conviction in Rosario and, we may add, in every town of the Republic, not excepting Buenos Ayres, that the Santa Fe Government is not up to the mark. It has done far more evil than good. The province is ruined. Taxation is very heavy. Life is by no means secure; property ditto. The Government does as it pleases, and what it does pleases not the people. Santa Fe is not the only province in that respect. It is to be hoped, however, that the San afecinos will remember that the optics of civilization are gazing at them, and we, therefore, trust that the manifestants on Sunday next will distinguish themselves by their pacific and firm attitude.

THE SANTIAGO QUESTION.

STORMY DEBATE.

On Tuesday night the Chamber of Deputies sat to discuss the Senate vote throwing out the amendment made by the honorable deputies in the Government Intervention Bill. Deputy Magnasco began at once by stating that he would insist on the amendment. He deplored the circumstance that the local press with one exception had overlooked the importance of the question under discussion. Art. 6 of the Constitution was staring them in the face. No argument could overturn that article. It was clear that the Governor should be reinstated. Supposing the Governor of a province were overthrown by a foreign invasion, it would be the duty of the National Government to reinstate him, and not to pronounce on the legality of his election. There was very little difference between invasion and sedition. Both were subversive movements. He knew he was defending a cause already lost, but he was obeying his conscience, he was defending democratic liberty. He was satisfied he was fulfilling his duty as representative of the people (hear, hear).

Deputy Alcobendas (whose vote at the previous sitting had been unfavorably commented on by the party he represents) delivered a speech, in which he proclaimed his independence in the matter of conviction and conduct.

Deputy Gounet—wanted to say two words. He was sorry the Home-Minister was not present to answer Deputies Magnasco and Alcobendas. His opinion was that the Chamber should not insist. He endeavored to shew that Governor Rojas had not been overthrown by sedition, but by rebellion. In other words the Republican form of Government had been interfered with.

Deputy Figueroa—ably refuted this argument, Deputy Magnasco chiming in.

Deputy Magnasco—And if the Republican form of Government has been altered in Santiago, why do we not vote intervention for the Province of Buenos Ayres to restore the Republican form of Government there? (General excitement amongst the Deputies. The gallery begins to cheer. Several Deputies jump up and begin shouting out for intervention in Entre Rios. Deputy Magnasco springs up and gesticulates wildly. The Speaker is utterly unable to control the Chamber. Finally a calm supervenes.)

Deputy Magnasco—I am quite willing that an interventor be sent to Entre Rios. Let us have intervention in the 14 provinces.

Deputy Ugarte—I cannot allow Mr. Magnasco's allusion to the Province of Buenos Ayres to pass unnoticed. He hates Buenos Ayres. (Hisses, groans, coughing, laughter.)

In the province of Buenos Ayres every right is respected, every complaint attended to. (Loud hissing and laughter in the gallery. Some persons begin to whistle)

I am not afraid of the gallery. It should have no part in our debates. (Prolonged laughter.) And I will also say that the province of Buenos Ayres has this merit: its Government is honest. (Tremendous hissing, groans, laughter.)

When order was restored, the question was put to the vote, and, by 31 votes to 30, it was decided to insist; but, as a plurality was needed to insist, the Bill as passed by the Senate remains unaltered.

THE TROUBLES IN UGANDA.

To the Editor of the Pall Mall Gazette.

Sir,

Having just come from South Africa, and from visiting Maison Carrée, in Algers, the headquarters of the White Fathers, the missionaries of Uganda, I am well up in the Uganda question, and possess many published and unpublished documents and letters relative to the late troubles there. Therefore, from a sense of justice and my knowledge of an Englishman's love of fair-play, I venture to send you my convictions on the matter, which has been so unfairly represented by the Times and other papers. It is evident that there are two conflicting versions of the origin of the Uganda war. One is given by Captain Lugard, who represents the East Africa Company, and the other by Bishop Hirth, who represents King Mwanga and the Catholic party.

1. Captain Lugard's version, according to Thursday's Times, is that a Protestant chief was killed by a Catholic chief. Whereupon he (Captain Lugard) commanded the King to deliver up the murderer. Mwanga refused to obey his orders, whereupon he (Captain Lugard) felt it his duty to appeal to arms for the maintenance of justice.

2. Bishop Hirth's version of the origin of the war is as follows:—On the night of January 20 (1892), in Mengo, the capital of Uganda, a Protestant chief, named Muwanika, with a band of ruffians armed to the teeth and with firebrands in their hands, attacked the private house of the Catholic chief Mongolaba. Mongolaba, in mere self-defence, fired upon his would-be assassins, and killed one of them. On the same day Captain Lugard called upon Mwanga, and ordered him to deliver up Mongolaba as guilty of murder. This the King refused to do, for he knew that his chief was innocent of murder, having killed the man not out of malice, but in sheer self-defence. This refusal of the King infuriated Captain Lugard and his party, and was the signal for the outbreak of the war. For on the night of the 23rd Katekkiro, by Captain Lugard's orders, armed two hundred men in Fort Kampala with rifles and ammunition, and on the following day, having put in safety the Protestant missionaries with their cattle, they sallied forth at 2 p. m. and opened a heavy fire upon the King and his Catholic subjects, laying waste their homes and their churches by fire and sword. Then the King and 4,000 Catholics fled for refuge to Sésé, a small island in Victoria Nyanza Lake. But they were not safe there long. For on the 30th Captain Lugard's army in fifteen boats followed them to the island. The attack which followed was uncalled-for, and contrary to the rights of nations.

Now which of these two stories of the Uganda war is correct? It is evident from the following reasons that Bishop Hirth's statement is the true one:—

Bishop Hirth is familiar with the natives and their language, and consequently knows what goes on, not by hostile interpreters, but from personal knowedge; whereas Captain Lugard, being ignorant of the native language, is entirely dependent for news on the reports brought to him by his Mahommedan soldiers; who are deceitful and known enemies of the Christian name, and rivals of the native race.

When in Zanzibar, the headquarters of Central African news, I learned that the political circles and Consular authorities there were of one opinion, that Captain Lugard and his party were really the aggressors in this matter.

Moreover the Marquis of Beauchamp, Dr. Moloney, and Mr. Robinson, the only white survivors of the Katanga Expedition, and my fellow-passengers on board the homeward bound Ava all assured me that the universal opinion of unbiassed men in those parts of Central Africa through which they travelled is that Captain Lugard and his Protestant party are responsible for the Uganda war, and that the English papers have been entirely misled.

Your obedient servant,

Kenelm Vaughan.

ARGENTINE FINANCE.

To the Editor of the Financial Times.

Sir,

Why not discontinue the further issue of Funding bonds? To continue the issue with the almost avowed intention of the Argentine authorities to reduce their interest at the end of the moratorium is a futility, and serves no good purpose, but many bad ones.

To discontinue it would impose no hardship upon the holders of the old Argentine stocks, and would be no disadvantage to the Baring guarantors, to whom it affords now no further relief; but it would be an enormous benefit to the Argentine State.

Then the two Customs Loans, the 1886 and the Funding issued up to date, together with the small amount of outstanding 1881 loan, could be unified at once into a five per cent. Customs stock, with one-half per cent. accumulative sinking fund with half-yearly drawings at par.

The other loans could be unified into a three per cent. stock of which 100 per cent. to be given to the holders of the 1884 and Treasury Conversion Loans, 30 per cent. to the two Four and a-Half per Cent. Loans, and 70 per cent. to the Three and a-Half per cent. Loan, with sinking fund one per cent. unaccumulative applied at 60 the first year, 2 per cent. applied at 70 the second and 3 per cent. applied at 80, 90 and 100 maximum in the succeeding years.

This would be a very great improvement on the present position for the holders of all loans, and would probably be readily acquiesced in. It would save the Argentine State a further £7,500,000 of capital indebtedness on the balance of the Funded Loan, and would reduce their actual capital indebtedness, which, under the action of the large sinking fund applied at a low but progressive rate, would be very rapidly reduced.

It would be an enormous relief to all parties, it would be quite within the means of Argentina, at its present rate of expansion, and would give a tremendous fillip to the fall in the gold premium, which by rapidly reaching a much lower level would of itself greatly facilitate the working of the scheme.

The present arrangement, which was designed to give the old holders nearly par value for their coupons, has, with an average price of 53 for Funded, utterly failed in its application, and its premature termination would be exceedingly popular. The arrangement might be carried out at once to date from 1st January, 1893.

The railway guarantees would have to be the subject of a separate arrangement on somewhat equivalent lines. The crux of the whole matter is the absolute and immediate discontinuance of the further issue of Funded bonds.

I am, etc.

A Dealer in Argentine Stocks.

SPANISH-AMERICANS IN NEW YORK.

The representative club of the Spanish-American residents in this city is the Spanish-American Literary Society. It seldom falls to the lot of one organization to number among its members so many distinguished representatives of the literary, political, military and mercantile world In fact in no other race is such versatility of talent displayed as is shown in the Spanish-American. He is a soldier in the revolution, an author or merchant in time of peace, and at all times a diplomat. These characteristics are focused in this society. Ministers and consuls from our sister republics meet the commission merchants and professional men of this city and discuss belles-lettres and essays on social and political questions, and debate upon the state of trade.

Many of these merchants have been leaders in great revolutionary movements, and many have left their counting houses to fill high political offices in their respective countries.

The founder of the society in Santiago Perez Triana. Some six years ago he communicated to several of his friends the idea of bringing together the representative literary men of the Spanish-American republics in a society, and so favorably was it received that the organisation was immediately formed. Mr. Perez Triana was the first president of the society, and was twice re-elected to the office. He was engaged in the commission business in this city for many years, and was the Consul of Salvador at this port. His father was formerly the President of the United States of Colombia, and represented that country as Minister at Washington.—New York paper.

IN QUARANTINE.

President Harrison will have discovered by this time that it is easier to proclaim twenty-one days' quarantine than to carry it out. It is customary with civilised governments when they adopt such extreme measures as the placing under arrest of whole steamer loads of travellers to have adequate preparation made for supplying them with the necessaries and decencies of life. But when President Harrison issued his proclamation no one seems to have bestowed a thought on what was to be done with the quarantined passengers. There was not even a recognised quarantine station to land them at.

At Rio and the River Plate quarantine is so systematically practised that travellers consider themselves fortunate when they escape it. At certain seasons of the year Flores Island is never without crowds of unwilling visitors. Situated a few miles below Montevideo it is perhaps the largest and certainly the most active of modern lazarettes. Here the fine old-fashioned quarantine theory is carried out to the letter. Five or six hundred people will sometimes be landed on it out of a single ship, and not only themselves but every rag they have with them is treated as unclean. Everything must be turned out, aired and fumigated by various patent processes not to be met with anywhere outside of Flores. They must have been invented either on the island or for its special use.

There are three main buildings on the little Patmos first a lighthouse at the upper end, next the quarantine barracks in the middle, and lastly the hospital standing by itself. The barracks seen from a distance are like a Swiss chalet on a large scale, but in greatly decayed circumstances. Its lower floors are shaded by broad verandahs and the upper ones by balconies.

Then comes the going ashore—a rough job if the sea be not in good humour, which it seldom is. The steamer has to do everything with its own boats, the island supplying nothing apparently but board and lodging.

By degrees the natives wake up and one or two officials make their appearance. A big man, in slippers and blue-black whiskers flying about half a-yard on either side of him, begins to orate with Spanish fluency, which, when well started, beats any other kind of fluency I have ever met with. His voice rises rapidly from a whisper to a roar, and from a roar to a torrent of words which seems to be carrying him clean away. His umbrella, a full-grown gamp weighing three or four pounds if it weighs an ounce, catches the infection and begins to swing round his head like an avenging tomahawk. At first the quarantinees are rather afraid of him. They think he must be breathing fire and flame against them, but it turns out, much to their relief, that he is only trying to explain to them in choice Castilian that if they leave everything alone it will be all taken up to the "depositos."

The light baggage is put on first and taken up to the "fumigator"—a series of great ovens about the size and shape of an engine furnace. In front of each oven is a cradle formed of iron bars, and resting on wheels, by which it can be easily pushed into the oven. The emigrants who are the first victims have to turn out every scrap they own on the floor and make it up into bundles. These are thrown into the cradles and run into the ovens, to be kept there at a high temperature for about half-an-hour. The bundles come out so hot that they can hardly be touched for a minute or two.

Afterwards the first and second class luggage has to run the gauntlet, but it is treated with comparative mercy. Clothes which have been worn on the voyage must all be steamed, and for the rest the sulphur cure is deemed sufficient. This is very simply done by piling all the trunks and cases in an air tight shed and burning sulphur under them for twenty minutes or so. With baggage actually infected much stronger measures than these are, however, used. Its fumigation may extend over ten days or a fortnight, while in ordinary cases a few days will suffice. In the old days the passengers themselves were also fumigated, but they are now spared that indignity. The Montevideans have great faith in the sanitary virtue of the bracing sea breeze of Flores Island. Six days of it should, they think, be a good enough tonic, even for dilapidated Brazilians—the more so if it be blown into your lungs with all the force of a River Plate "norther," as strong and sharp as an old English east wind.—Financial Times.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The Contaduria-General have issued a report shewing that according to the law of concession, the guarantee on the San Cristobal Tucuman Railway is on the valuation of the main line 5 % on $18,000 gold per kilometre. The Contaduria do not think that the branches are entitled to the guarantee. However, the contract with Messrs. Portalis Freres, Carbonier & Co. specifies that the branches are entitled to the guarantee. The Government will have to decide the question.

A letter has been left with us, addressed to Miss Povey, 4310 Calle Rivadavia, Almagro, where she is unknown.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Rude Winter suddenly jumped back into the lap of Spring yesterday and nearly knocked the lovely and gentle lady down. Eolus roared about and turned thousands of umbrellas inside out. The estancieros and farmers were all in as high spirits as if the Gold Eagle had soared up fifty points, with the wool and wheat markets in his claws. The river was in such an angry mood that the ocean steamers had to put off their start for the Old World.

After all the fuss and rumpus about the raffle of a chalet at Quilmes by the "Hermanas de los Desamparados" being illegal and what-not, it turns out to be as legal and all-right as the Constitution itself. The Lord Mayor has examined the title-deeds and, finding them perfect, has given the charitable ladies interested full permission to raffle the chalet. His lordship, we believe, has taken a lot of tickets himself.

The bad weather and a done-upish feeling after their field-day on Tuesday night (No "bull" intended) caused the honourable Deputies of the nation to noquorum yesterday. The several Committees of the House also shirked work.

Our resident American cousins seem rather sorry at President Harrison's bereavement. He is the first President of the United States made a widower while in office.

Dr. Eduardo Costa, ex-Minister of Foreign Affairs, has been named Interventor in Santiago del Estero. If the "suaviter in modo" can do the trick, he's the man. General Arias commands the "intervening" troops.

The Minister of the Interior has wired to the Governors of Cordoba, Santa Fé, Tucuman etc., not to allow armed bands from their provinces to take part in the Santiago del Estero shindy.

An interesting ceremony is to take place in Quilmes on Tuesday next, when Mrs. Sterling will, in the absence of the Lord Bishop of the Falkland Islands, lay the foundation stone of the New Anglican Church. We are glad to see that Mr. Luckman's and his committee's efforts are in a fair way to be crowned with success, and that the Protestant inhabitants of Quilmes will be able to follow in the footsteps of Lomas and have their own church and attendant vicarage. A Bazaar will be held on December 7 and 8th in aid of the Building Fund of this church. Mr. Rooke is kindly lending his quinta for the occasion, and preparations are in full swing for this event, which will, without doubt, be a financial and social success.

We have received a lengthy description in verse of the proceedings on Tuesday night in the Chamber of Deputies, but, while thanking the poet whose muse led him into the noisy "recinto," we must emphatically refuse to publish his inspired production. We acknowledge it is good. We like the following strophe—

> Intervention's all a firsco
> Excited yelled Magnasco,
> Then spoke the gallant Gonnet
> And vowed he'd think no more upon it;
> Until tripped up by witty Figueroa
> Who smote him hard and to the core.

Describing the row that ensued, the poet goes on as follows:

> "Hold hard," the Speaker cries,
> I can scarce believe my eyes!
> What! the "barra" hisssing, laughing,
> "Egad, you must all be chaffing"
> Señores, un poco mas de jucio
> Let us vote in quiet, I beseech you.

The Alliança, of the new direct line from New York, arrived at Montevideo yesterday and will be here this morning.

Can some of our camp readers tell us whether the Handbook calculations about Alfalfa accord with their experience, viz:—

1. Ordinary yield 12 tons of green 'alfalfa' per cuadra yearly, or 3 tons per acre. 2. Three tons of green 'alfalfa' make one ton of hay. 3. Value of green 'alfalfa' 15 to $20 currency per ton.

The Correo Español yesterday had a fine portrait of General Prendergast, late Captain General of Andalucia. He was born in Spain, of an old Wexford family, and is now in his 53rd year. He is the head of the Free Trade party in Spain, is well versed in English literature, and feels delighted whenever an occasion offers to shew any civility at Madrid to English or Irish visitors. If Canovas del Castillo be shelved we hope to see Gen. Prendergast in power.

Cheap barometers. A plug of tobacco, by its moisture and softness, will indicate the approach of a storm, a loose window cord will tighten up just before rain, and a pair of gloves, ordinarily tight on the hands, will become almost baggy on the approach of bad weather.

Our Swiss fellow citizens have issued a square-league programme for their shooting fete on the 11th to 14th prox., and we intend to avail of it as a summer quilt. There is a soul-stirring address at the foot; and the fete promises to be the most brilliant the Swiss residents here have yet held.

Governor Rojas of Santiago del Estero has told a newspaper reporter that a "changador" has a far happier life than a politician, and he intends to launch his sons in life as members of the first-named learned profession. His eldest son, a fiery young gentleman of 11 years, is a born politician and talks up to the oldest political hands in Santiago, whenever he gets a chance, which is pretty often.

Whoever wants to see the drawing of the Beneficencia Lottery to-day must tumble out of bed early and take his breakfast with him in his pocket, as it begins at 7 a.m. and finishes long after noon.

The La Plata Deputies voted a couple of millions of extra expenditure on Tuesday with as light a "corazon" as if the La Plata Treasury were full instead of empty. This is the way to go about settling with the foreign bondholders, though the latter may not think so.

The young Bachelors and the Benedicts at La Plata have each given a jolly pic-nic lately, and next Sunday week the Old Bachelors will sail in with the jolliest outing of the three. Only those who are as bald as billiard balls and have sworn never to marry will be allowed to join the fete as hosts.

Beer, gentle beer! We have to thank the manager of the Bieckert Brewery Company, Mr. J. Russell, for kindly mitigating the "seca" that has prevailed for some time in the STANDARD cellar by sending us a barrel of his already famous Bavarian beer, which is rapidly forcing its way into public consumption.

Chile appears to have got the striking business in as full swing as any country in stricken old Europe. On Tuesday 800 railway strikers marched in procession through Santiago, with banners and devices. They demand 25 per cent increase in wages, and evidently mean to have it.

Who is going to win the "grande" in the Beneficencia Lottery to-day? We're not, as we have no tickets. The next drawing will be on the 3rd prox., this day week, with the same prizes as in to-day's.

We note that when the new Paraguayan Envoy presented his credentials to President Peixoto on Monday, the two great and good men hurled "enthusiastic" speeches at each other. What the dickens there can be to enthuse about in reference to either Brazil or Paraguay just at present we are quite unable to see. Perhaps they have both received some good news from London.

H.M.S. Sirius has arrived at Montevideo from Rio.

A terrible accident is reported from San Geronimo Colony, where a young man was shot dead by Dr. Rohen, who was shooting at a target.

The War Minister refuses to accept General Mansilla's papers; so the "beau sabreur" and brilliant writer and speaker remains in the service.

In reference to the system of hoarding to which we referred in "on'Change" yesterday, we note another curious thing: three robberies of jewels, worth $1,500, $1,400 and $500 respectively, all from gentlemen. (We suppose a man with $500 worth of rings, chains and general jewel trumpery is entitled to Esquire after his name. There can be no doubt as to the other two.) Ladies are generally supposed to have a monopoly of jewels; but we believe that when the "crisis of progress" burst up many speculators picked up tremendous bargains in jewels, and are holding them for the good times coming.

The old Immigration tune is recommencing. A lot of heathens, Turks, Bohemians, Assyrians and Babylonians have arrived in the Aquitaine. They tried to land at Rio but were not allowed, and have come on here. There can be no surer sign that the country is recovering than seeing these vagabonds turning their attention to it again. They should all be sent back to Europe.

Any one that has an empty purse should be careful that the moon does not shine in it, or else that purse will not have anything in it as long as the moon doth last.

The Lord Mayor has his lance in rest for a final tilt at the the theatres before he leaves the City chair. It appears that according to the innumerable laws and "ordenanzas" in reference to them, they ought all to be shut up instanter: but it is safe to lay 100 to nothing that they will all remain open; as theatrical managers have some special knack of successfully evading the laws of this law-evading country.

Bahia Blanca seems to be a glorious place for schoolboys. Every day in the streets there a pitched battle with stones, bricks and any missiles at hand takes place between the boys of the two private schools and those of the State establishment. Up to the present neither side has won, as the most heroic gallantry is displayed by both belligerents.

Oh! Gracious me! They seem to be very sore in Montevideo about the disappearance in the P. O. there of fifty letters with the Columbus stamps of this republic. Our English daily contemporary is specially angry and says: "The only rational conclusion is that here the authorities are in collusion with the thieves, and perhaps share the plunder." We felt ourself turning quite pale on reading such a shocking supposition.

We're not out of the Columbus Centenary wood yet. The lingering sweetness of the "fiestas" is still being drawn out. We learn that there has been such a prodigious demand for Mr. Sanz's book that he has published a second edition.

The Locust Extinction cash voted by Congress—half a million of shinplasters—has all gone already, but the Locusts have not gone, nor are they likely to go. The provinces of Santa-Fé and Entre-Rios got the biggest slices from the plum cake: $10,000 each more than their sister provinces.

The mother of a Pampa king has just died in Nueve de Julio, where her son used to reign, raid and ravage not so very many years ago. Doña Felipa de Coliqueo, mother of Cacique Coliqueo, passed exactly a century in this world, and has, no doubt, gone to a better one, as she was a good old soul.

More than fifty years ago, the late Lord Lytton wrote:—"In the laws of England there are somewhere about 150 laws by which a poor man may be hanged," but not one by which he can obtain justice for nothing. This anomalous and distressing condition of affairs has been in our day, to a great extent, remedied, but it is the proud boast of "The English" in the Argentine Republic that all classes of society, rich and poor alike, can now at No 594, Calle Cangallo, purchase Improved Pyjama suits by means of which comfort and health can be materially increased. There also, and nowhere else may be bought socks of genuine English make at $5,90 the half-dozen, as well as travelling bags, umbrellas, sticks, gaiters, shirts, handkerchiefs, scarves, ties, and in fact every description of underclothing and fancy goods, all of unapproachable excellence.
Then hie to "THE ENGLISH" away,
with never a moment's delay,
Let nothing prevent, or you'll always repent
If you're tardy, and don't go to-day!

ON 'CHANGE.

Wednesday, October 26th 1892.
The slight improvement that crept into the gold market yesterday, after the vote in the Senate, came to a stand-still this morning. Bearish dealers walked in and made a faint attempt to put down prices, but the market rallied and refused to go under $51.20 to the ounce. Although the political situation is viewed in a more favorable light, now that a National Interventor goes to Santiago del Estero to put an end to the anarchy in that province, there is a deep-rooted discontent in the financial programme of the Government. If the Cabinet could be induced to submit to Congress during the present extraordinary session a bill reforming the charter of the Banco de la Nacion and turning that State bank into a joint-stock company, the market would be more hopeful and would look at the future in a less gloomy light.

About eleven thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $51.20, fell to $51.10, rose to $51.30, and closed at $51.20, say 214.59% premium. Seventeen hundred sovereigns were sold at $15.85 and $15.91, say 215¼% premium. Some operators attached much importance to the sensational article in a morning colleague about an alliance between Chile and Brazil, but the international importance of the news fell flat in an incredulous market; far more interest is attached to the march of local politics and the financial programme of the new Government than to these bubbles across the frontiers.

Patriotic Bonds were dull but steady. About one hundred thousand changed hands at 73.40 and 73.30. Internal Bonds were done at 66.80 for cash and end of month, but business was insignificant. Shares of the Catalinas Company were weak, the market closing heavy at 8.80 for cash, and 8.90 for end of the month and end of November. Municipal Consols opened at 60.80, but closed at 60.50; the price for the end of the month closed at 60.30. Spanish Bank shares were sold at 106. A few National Cedulas A gold changed hands at 31 gold. La Plata Cedulas were very dull; the stock was neglected but prices were steady at 32.

Exchange showed no alteration; rates continued at 47⅛ to 47¼d. on London, 5.01 to 5.02 francs. Discounts were easy, money ruling superabuedant.

Cheques of the National Bank continued very steady at 10% discount; those of the Provincial Bank closed at 33% discount. Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank were done at 18.30% of their face value.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

Gold is going to Rio again. The Equateur took over 60,000 sovereigns. This efflux of specie at the present juncture has excited some attention, especially in view of the weakening tendency of exchange.

As per notice in another column it will be seen that Mr. Maclennan intends returning to England on 22 November, and is booking orders for Fine Stock. He is so well known in our market for years past for the quality of animals he brings to the country that we need say nothing more in his favor but advise estancieros to put their orders in his hands.

Messrs. Bravo, Barros and Co. sold yesterday the fine property Calle Bolivar nos. 262-266, between Alsina and Moreno, 8.20 varas front by 67 varas deep, for 60,000$ m/n; buyer, Mr. F. Mora. The same auctioneers sold the property Calle Santa Fé 1300 to 1310, corner of Talcahuano, 14 varas by 25 varas, with large building, for 80,000$ m/n. Buyers, Messrs. Lucio and Alberto Lopez.

Messrs. Mayer and Bonaccio applied to the Government to-day for permission to build a mole on the Parana in front of their sugar factory in Formosa.

Messrs. Williams and Co. have applied for packet privileges for the steamer Alliança, to ply between this port and New York.

The gold market ruled weak at the second ring; six thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow at 51.10$ and 51$, say 213.36% premium. Patriotic Bonds were steady at 73.40 for to-morrow and end of month and 74.30 for end of the year. Internal Bonds remained hard at 66.80. Catalinas were stationary, and La Plata Cedulas were very flat.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the second ring to-day:—

Ounces—
Oct. 27.... 6,235 at 51.10-51.

Telegrams from the rural districts announce that it has rained at Alvear, Maipu, Magdalena, Moron, San Martin, Ayacucho, Tigre, Almirante Brown, San Antonio, Monte, Salto, San Vicente, Pilar, Junin, Juarez, Arrecifes, Giles, Merlo, Mercedes, General Cármen, Quilmes, Saladillo, Campana, Zarate, Capilla, Chacabuco, Ramallo, Chascomus, Baradero, Lincoln, Cañuelas, General Guido, Las Flores, San Pedro, Lobos, General Lavalle, San Justo, Coronel Dorrego, Mar del Plata, and Balcarce.

The Hamburg steamer Itaparica arrived at Montevideo to-day. Mr. Martin Meyer, the well-known hide-broker, is aboard.

In spite of the bad weather, the produce markets were active this morning. The arrivals of wool were large. Mr. Ramsay sold about 60,000 kilos of Lincoln wool at 8.50 to 9.50$ per 10 kilos; some fine wool at 7.50 to 8$. Mr. J. Elordi sold 10,000 kilos of fine "pasto fuerte" wool from the far West at 8.20$. Mr. Kelsey sold 20,000 kilos from Rawson at reserved price. Messrs. Duggan sold 30,000 kilos of North wools at 7 and 7.69$. Mr. F. Llavallol sold 10,000 from Coronel Dorrego district at 8.50$, etc. etc

Messrs. Devoto, Balbiani and Co. sold 10,000 bags of maize for export at 6$ per 100 kilos; another lot of equal importance is spoken of. Messrs. Wattine Bossut bought 800 tons in San Pedro at 5 30$ per 100 kilos on the farm.

The following late advices respecting the Australian wool clip may interest this market:—

"It is to be feared that the clip now growing will scarcely turn out an average one. Produced under exceptionally unfavourable conditions, a dry summer, poor feed, and late winter rains, it is but too probable that it may prove to be weak in staple and deficient in body. Excessive mortality in sheep, and poor lambing, point to the conclusion that the rate of increase to be declared on the 30th June, 1893, will scarcely equal the percentage of recent seasons, and that sheepskins and dead wool will be in large supply for some time to come. An increase of 15 per cent in the number of bales sold in Australia, say 686,000 bales, as compared with 604,000 bales so disposed of the previous year, is pretty conclusive evidence of the growing desire on the part of owners to grasp the nimble sixpence, and to dispense with the uncertainties of a distant market. More than a third of last season's Australian clip of wool was realised on the spot, 211,000 bales going forward on English, 326,506 bales on Continental, 52,300 on American, and 1,700 on Japanese account, leaving 94,500 bales to be divided among local buyers."

Messrs Bullrich and Company again announce the auction of the Progreso Club house building and also the Frias mansion in Calle Piedad; both properties are now put up under a lower valuation. The basis price for the Progreso is $400,000 and for the house in Calle Piedad $200,000. Not many years ago the properties were considered some of the best in this city; but to-day the tastes and requirements have changed, and to modernise them or shape them into offices for which, from their locality they are best suited, would cost a good deal of money.

Mr. Cuyar's retirement from the Caja de Conversion will be regretted by all, as his long and honorable services in this market endeared him to all; but the years rush on and Don Miguel feels that he cannot work as hard as before. We hope, however, he will not resign the post of Syndic of the National bank; we want him there and cannot do without him.

Strange to say, although there is a little more stir in the market felt now owing to the new wool coming in, money in banking circles keeps as superabundant as ever. Every bank parlour in Buenos Ayres welcomes the brokers who have good first class lists of trade pagares, which are picked up the very moment offered and done at 5 per cent per annum; and according to a first-class French broker, even under that rate also. This would indicate that money is flowing back into the banks from the people's pockets.

People who want to buy valuable pledged jewelry should go to the night auction, Calle Cerrito 439, on 2nd prox. as the Credito General, which is a sort of pawn broker's bank, sells off a number of valuable watches, diamond rings, and pins to recover amounts advanced.

The Chief of Police has just rented the large premises, Calle Rivadavia, almost facing the Railway station, and which in former years was held by the Military School of Cabos and Sargentos, for a police lock-up or prison, at the high rent of 500$ m/n per month. Good tenants and high rents are so scarce now that we suppose the landlord is well pleased to get the Chief of Police for a tenant.

The sales of new wool in the South and Central markets are now getting so numerous that it is hard to keep up with them all, and the consignatarios might well afford to strike off at noon every day a full and complete list of sales, giving fullest details, where wools come from, owner's name also consignatario's, how many fleeces to the 10 kilos, condition of wool etc. We believe the sheet would pay if properly attended to. This morning there was new wool all round and sales free and easy:

180,000 kilos various lots Rambouillet and Lincoln from $6.50 to $8.50.

Mr. McDonald of the Salado has sold his wool deliverable at the station on the railway at 8$ m/n, which may be considered a very high price, as he is free of all charges.

The rain this morning of course interfered with business somewhat in the markets, and the shearing outside is brought to a stand-still; but the wools are coming up very fast, and we may safely mark close on a million of kilos sold this week already. Prices are decidedly better than was a fortnight ago anticipated. What is most remarkable is the great activity in shearing this year; shearers far more numerous than last year, and they say that in Pergamino the shearing is already over.

The great storm in town last night and to-day has come up from the South, where they had it on Monday; rain in torrents, telegraph posts down and camps alongside the railway covered with water, which at this time of year is a special blessing.

Messrs Mackinlay Hermanos, who are about the most active auctioneers in the market, and whose offices are dressed up with splendid maps of the provinces with every property marked thereon, have just got hold of a nice piece of land in the Carmen de Areco, the full particulars of which will be found in the advertisement. We notice the matter as it is not often land in Carmen de Areco is put up at auction. The land is rich and good, with an old tumble-down puesto and a few trees. It might be made a nice invernada or cabaña. The upset price is $19,400 m/n.

Mr. Olmi, who is the great furniture auctioneer, will sell next week 10 leagues of prime 'estancia' land in San Rafael, Province of Mendoza. As the upset price is only sixty cents the hectare, we advise our friends who have a little ready money to look the matter up. We note that Don Emilio Wenck owns the land adjoining; now, we suppose this Wenck is our friend and creditor the fashionable jeweller in Calle Rivadavia, who sells half the gold watches and diamond rings in town. We never knew that he owned half the side of a country sloping up to the Andes in Mendoza before, but he must be the man, since the river that runs through the property is the Diamante. Ortega is the next neighbour, and the proposed line of railway is to bisect the land. When we consider that Mr. Grumbein pays the Government one thousand dollars gold per league for land in Santa Cruz, on the straits of Magellan, we can readily imagine how cheap this San Rafael 'estancia' is; and bear it in mind that every mortal thing grows in Mendoza provided you irrigate. Therefore, Phillips' wind mill can make a league of land in Mendoza worth more than a league of land in Lujan or Mercedes, Buenos Ayres. Parties interested in buying this Mendoza 'estancia' should interview Mr Wenck in Calle Rivadavia; and possibly if they don't buy the land they may buy a gold watch or diamond pin from our friend, who is the largest jeweller estanciero in the Plate.

The Executive will ask the Senate to approve Drs. M. Uribelarrea, and N. Achaval as Directors of the Caja de Conversion, to replace Messrs. Cuyar and Casares.

The Executive will ask the Senate to sanction the re-appointment of Messrs. Balbin, Ramos Mejia, Terry and Doncel as Directors of the National Mortgage Bank.

Paper Money.

Projectors every now and then start up with plans for curing all the economical evils of society by means of an unlimited issue of inconvertible paper. There is, in truth, a great charm in the idea. To be able to defray the expenses of government without taxation, and, in fine, to make the fortune of the whole community, is a brilliant prospect, when once a man is capable of believing that printing a few characters on bits of paper will do it. The philosopher's stone could not be expected to do more.

The substitution of Paper for metallic currency is a national gain: any further increase of Paper beyond this is but a form of robbery.—John Stuart Mill on Inconvertible Paper Currency.

The best and cheapest cure for scab.

Testimonial from James F Ballesty Esq.
La Estrella, Rojas, July 14th 1892.

I am happy to say that Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder has been most satisfactory in its results, so much so, that until I am convinced there exists a better and cheaper dip, I intend to use no other.

THREE GOOD REASONS.

Why Sheepmen everywhere should use

Alexander Robertson's

HIGHLAND SHEEP DIP.

Best Summer Protection for Sheep. Cures Scab. Exterminates Vermin.

First.—It is an honest preparation. I publish the formula of its composition openly. I make no attempt to trade on the credulity of my patrons, who, with the formula before them, can form a shrewd opinion of the efficiency of the "Dip" and its value in Cash. I range myself alongside the Farmer, and make his interests my own.

Second.—It is a reliable sheep dip. That it Kills Vermin goes without saying—any Sheep Dip worthy the name will do that; but the Highland Sheep Dip does more,—it has a continuous destructive effect on all insects hatched after Dipping, and largely prevents future contagion from infected sheep. The strongly adhesive nature of the Rosin and Grease, which are the most powerful Waterproofing materials possible to introduce into a sheep Dip, "fix" the Dip in the fleece, forming, when dry, a film capable of resisting moisture, on every individual fibre of the fleece, so that when the fleece has been soaked by rain the sheep easily frees itself from all superabundant moisture by a simple shake.

Third.—It is the most economical Dip. For $1.75 gold Makers of Powder Dips give about 10 lbs. of Powder. This quantity of Yellow Powder Sheep Dip contains 2 lb Arsenic, 2 lb. Soda, 6 lb. Sulphur. These Dips kill vermin certainly; but their use is disastrous to the farmer—the harsh, dry feel of the sheep's fleece shortly after being bathed in these Alkaline Dips arises from the fact that the wool has been Robbed of its Natural Grease, which the Soda has converted into Soap, which, in turn, is washed out by rain. The farmer suffers a corresponding loss in the weight of the Wool, and the Sheep, robbed of Nature's protection, is left defenceless against cold and rain.

Soluble Fluid Dips—whose name is legion, though their nature is one—have an average cost of $1.30 gold per gallon, and consist of tar Acid Oil (25 o/o), 6 lbs. Soap, Soda and Water 4 lbs. These Dips have to be used at nearly double strength to kill vermin, even then they have no effect on the eggs; and, indeed, from the volatile nature of Tar Acids their effect can never be anything but temporary, no matter what strength they are used. The one thing in their favour is their free solubility in cold water, which is but a poor return for the need of greater frequency of Dipping, or the other alternative of flocks suffering from the effects of a temporary Dip.

The highland Sheep Dip contains in each 15 lbs. (1½ gallon), costing 1.75 gold 2 lbs. Arsenic, 6½ lbs. Tar Acid Oil (25 o/o), 2 lbs. Carbolic Acid (95 o/o), 4½ lbs. Rosin, Grease, etc., i.e., all the Arsenic in 10 lbs. Powder Dip, and all the Tar Acids in 2 gallons Fluid Dip, these insecticides being combined with materials of unrivalled Waterproofing Power.

No other Sheep Dip Maker in the world has ever put an equally serviceable preparation in the hands of Sheep Farmers, or has given an equal value in material for the price charged.

CHARLES OLMI

A SPLENDID PROPERTY

In the heart of the city

By dissolution of partnership

Magnificent position

1574—ALSINA—1574

between Lorea & Zeballos

8 3/4 yds. front by 55 deep

(altos y bajos)

18 rooms, solidly built IN TWO STORIES, tram at the door and corners.

Plastered ceilings and boarded floors.

The inch of land is worth gold in that locality.

Barely 10 squares from Plaza Victoria.

Two modern houses, in excellent condition, to produce a good monthly rent.

These houses have produced up to $600 per month.

The first story is actually let and gives $200 per month; the 2-stories can easily produce over $450 per month, and the upset price for the sale is

$22,000 m|n legales

!!! Ridiculous ¡¡¡

It is only by the chance of a dissolution of partnership that such an opportunity as this could arise, and it behooves all, rich and poor, men of business and speculators to take advantage of this occasion

The rich man: to live in a good quarter.

The poor man: to have a sure and positive source of income.

Business men: to speculate and quadruple their capital.

On Tuesday 1st of November

(Feastday)

at 4 o'clock sharp

I will proceed to sell by public auction by order of the owners with the upset price of $22,000 m/n, this magnificent property which can be seen any day from 8 o'clock a.m. to 6 p.m. Although the first story is let, the house can be freely visited.

The purchaser will pay 5 o/o when signing the boleto, as a guarantee of the purchase.

IMPORTANT AUCTION OF LAND

In the Province of

MENDOZA

10 square leagues of splendid camp in the

Departamento 25 de Mayo

(formerly San Rafael), Prov. of Mendoza

Attention, Speculators.

On Wednesday November 2d

at 3 o'clock in the afternoon

In my Rooms

566—PIEDAD—566

I will offer for sale by order of the owner these 10 leagues of camp, say 25,000 hectares at the absurdly low basis of 0 60 (sixty) cents per hectare or fifteen hundred dollars m/n.

$1,500 m|n per square league

These camps are situated one league from Rio Diamante.

The camp is splendid for cattle, agriculture and vineyards. The projected railway from 9 de Julio (Province of Buenos Ayres) to San Rafael (Province of Mendoza) will soon pass through these camps, the earthworks being already made.

These are the best camps of 25 de Mayo bought years ago by Mrs. Nicolasa Ortega de Passo.

Contiguous to these camps are those of Messrs. Emilio Wenk, Eufemio Godoy, Elias Godoy, Nicolas Villanueva and N. Patry, who have paid 10 times more than the basis of $1,500 per league, for which I now offer for sale these camps. It is a good investment.

Purchasers have option to take 1, 2, 3 or more leagues.

The first purchaser will have the option to the ten leagues.

Campo en Córdoba

La mitad de la estancia denominada El Chato.

16,4?7 hectareas de magnifico campo dividido en 20 lotes de 625 hectareas cada uno y otro de 3987 hectareas. Campo de superior calidad para la agricultura, rodeado de importantes Establecimientos formados en la Estacion Ausonia del F. C. de Villa Maria a la Carlota y Rufino, cruzado por el arroyo San Jose y conocida por de Cabral, de agua permanente.

Tiene lotes de algarrobo y en el distrito existen los grandes alfalfares de los Funes, Diaz y Ca. y las colonias de Dominguez, Ortiz, Ferreyra y otros. Con la infima base de pesos 10 hectarea.

El Viernes 4 de Noviembre a las 2 p.m. en nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482, remataremos por orden terminante de su dueño, el magnifico campo mencionado, cuya ubicacion no puede ser mas importante, pues solo dista 3 leguas de las Estaciones Villa Maria y Ballesteros del F. C. C. Argentino e igual distancia de la gran Estacion Villa Nueva, cabecera del ferro-carril de este punto a la Carlota, y a solo 25 cuadras de la Estacion Ausonia del F. C. a Rufino.

Tenemos de este campo los mejores informes: hace 150 años que esta poblado; abunda la gramilla y el trebol; rodeado de Colonias é inmejorable para la agricultura. Actualmente hay 8 puestos arrendados sin contrato.

The splendid New Beers

'BAVARIA' AND 'PILSEN'

Which have proved such a success.

ANALYSIS

made by Mr. Francisco P. Lavalle of the National Department of Hygiene.

The undersigned certifies that he has examined two samples of Beer, named "BAVARIA" and "PILSEN" which were sent by Mr. John Russell, General Manager of Bieckert's Brewery Company Limited, with the following result:—

	BAVARIA	PILSEN
Density.........	1.018	1.011
Alcohol per 100 in volume....	4.50	4.65
Extract per 1000	59.05	46 85
Ash „	2.90	2 50
Sugar (reducing)	6.16	8.33
Acidity in lactic acid..........	1.22	1.27
Colouring matter...........	toasted malt and hops	toasted malt and hops
Bitter matter ..
Preserving matter	does not contain	does not contain
Phosphoric acid per 1000......	0.38	0 43

From the above analysis it can be seen:—

1st. That the two samples do not contain any substance injurious to health.

2nd. That both are good and fit for consumption.

3rd. That due to their general composition they are similar to the imported beers that bear the same brand

ALL OCCUPIERS OF QUINTAS while reading their newspaper to-day, should remember how angry they get every year when the gardener tells them that the hose pipe is worn out, and that he must have another (HOY SIN FALTA) or all the plants will die. But he forgets to add that he wore the hose out by dragging it over the ground and then hanging it on a hook, so it doubles and breaks. To economise profanity and minimize wear and tear of hose pipes, we manufacture the best and cheapest hose cart in the market. The cart has an iron drum, so there is no doubling of hose pipe. As it is on wheels a ten-year-old boy can handle sixty metres of hose pipe Carts for 20 metres of hose or less $15; larger size for 20 metres or more $18. We also sell a good class of rubber hose pipe and very nice lawn sprinklers which are a great saving of labour.

HORSFORDS PHOSPHATIC BAKING POWDER

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.

What a wonderful result is this!"
